Gould's Academy.

THIS Institution was incorporated in 1836 as BETHEL ACADEMY, and continued under this name until the year 1842, when it was changed to GOULD'S ACADEMY in honor of the Rev. DANIEL GOULD, who made a liberal bequest to the Academy on condition that it should be named after him.

The School is located on Bethel Hill, in one of the most attractive and beautiful villages in New England. The pleasant and healthful location, beautiful scenery, and romantic surroundings, make this a most desirable place for study. Students will find here less to attract their minds from study and to lead them to idle and vicious habits than in most country villages.

It offers the advantages of the following Courses and Departments of Study: Preparatory Course, Higher English Course, Classical Course, Commercial Department, and Music Department.

COURSES OF STUDY.

— • • —

Preparatory Studies.

Mental and Written Arithmetic, Elementary Algebra, Geography and Map Drawing, English Grammar and Analysis, Child's Book of Nature, U. S. History, Physiology, Reading and Spelling.

Special Classes in these studies will be formed each term as the wants of the School may require, and the length of time devoted to each will depend upon the ability and previous attainments of the pupil.

GENERAL INFORMATION.

General Exercises.

Exercises in Composition, Declamations, and Readings occur regularly during each Term. These exercises are imperative, and none are excused except for the most satisfactory reasons.

Commercial Department.

The Course of Study in this Department has been arranged for the Fall and Spring Terms, and is intended to be taken in connection with the studies of the other Courses. It includes the following branches: Penmanship, Drawing, Single and Double Entry Book-Keeping, Commercial Law, and Business Forms. Evening Sessions are held for the benefit of such students as are not able to attend the Day School.

Music Department.

It is believed that rare advantages are here offered for pursuing the study of Music. Instruction is given on the piano-forte, melodeon, or organ, and in the cultivation of the voice. Resident pupils will, perhaps, find it to their advantage to take these studies during the vacations.

Thorough instruction is also furnished in Oil Painting.

Examination and Exhibition.

There will be a Public Examination at the close of each Term, and an Exhibition at the close of the Fall and Spring Terms.

Text Books.

Ancient Languages—Harkness's Latin Grammar, Harkness's New Latin Reader, Harkness's Latin Composition, Harkness's

Cæsar, Chase and Stuart's Sallust, Harkness's Cicero, Frieze's Virgil, Andrew's or Bullion's Latin Lexicon, Hadley's Greek Grammar, Whiton's Greek Lessons, Boise's Anabasis, Boise's Iliad, Jones's Greek Composition, Liddell and Scott's Greek Lexicon, Smith's Classical Dictionary, Long's Classical Atlas.

Modern Languages—Otto's French Grammar, Otto's French Reader, Telemaque, Spiers and Surenné's French Dictionary, Otto's German Grammar, Undine, Adler's German Dictionary.

English—National Fifth Reader, Greene's Grammar, Rickard and Orcutt's Parsing Book, Parker's Exercises in English Composition, Harper's Geography, Cornell's Physical Geography, Greenleaf's Practical Arithmetic, Algebras, and Geometry, Bradbury's Trigonometry and Surveying, Barnes's U. S. History, Anderson's General History, Norton's Natural Philosophy, Steele's Physiology, Whatley's Rhetoric, Hooker's Natural History, Townsend's Analysis of Civil Government, Gray's Botany, Loomis's Astronomy, Dana's Geology, Shaw's English Literature, Steele's Chemistry, Upham's Mental Philosophy, Webster's Dictionaries.

Cabinet, etc.

The School has a good Cabinet of Minerals, numbering about fourteen hundred specimens, well arranged in cases for study. It has also Maps, Globes, Charts, and a limited supply of Chemical and Philosophical Apparatus.

Society and Library.

A Society is organized each Term, under the direction of the Principal, for the purpose of Debate, Declamations, Recitations, and other Literary Exercises. The Library contains some four hundred volumes.

Prizes.

At the close of each Fall Term a Prize is awarded to Gentlemen of excellence in Declamation; to Ladies for excellence in Reading.

At the close of each Spring Term a Prize is awarded to Gentlemen, and an equal Prize to Ladies, for excellence in Composition.

A Prize is also awarded at the close of each year to that member of the School who has sustained the Highest Rank throughout the year.

General Rules.

1. Students are required to be present during the recitation hours, and to attend all the regular exercises of the School. The evening hours are devoted to study, during which students are expected to be in their rooms.

2. No scuffling or boisterous conduct in the building, no marking, defacing, or otherwise injuring its walls or furniture, is allowed.

3. The use of tobacco in any form, in or about the Academy, is strictly forbidden.

4. It is expected that all will apply themselves faithfully to their studies and endeavor to sustain the reputation of the School, and their own, by maintaining a correct and decorous deportment.

5. No student who willfully or repeatedly disobeys any rule will be allowed to remain in the School.

Rank.

A strict record of each student's rank, deportment, absences, etc., is kept and published monthly. Students are seated in school according to their general rank.
